

Dear valued passenger:

To Jose Cuervo Express our highest priority is your safety and experience quality.

Due to the unfortunate events that took place on Tuesday, July 23rd, 2024 in Tequila, Jalisco, our distillery has cancelled all upcoming tours until further notice and pending the approval of the corresponding authorities for safe activation. We appreciate your understanding and will be offering updates as soon as they are available. Please contact the customer service team for additional information or any other questions you may have regarding your visit.

Due to the prior measures and always looking to offer you the highest quality in our services, and with the aim for you do not lose the opportunity of living the experience, we have adjusted our itinerary (in case we still are unable to access to our distillery) as follows:

- Boarding times for both itineraries remain unchanged.
- Both routes, as on train as on bus, remain as scheduled.
- Upon arrival at the Pueblo Mágico of Tequila, instead of the distillery visit, we will open, for this time; our exclusive experience “Jardines de Leonora Carrington” for your visit, as well as the “Tienda de Raya” where you will have the chance to behold an ethnographic collection of the Mexican Revolution and also the emblematic 82ft bar which represents Mexico’s popular history offering an unparalleled experience to you all.
- Afterwards we we’ll take you to visit the Juan Beckmann Gallardo Cultural Center as scheduled.
- Free time for lunch and town sightseeing on your own. We offer you the gastronomic options of: La Antigua Casona, Grilled steak Buffet, Fonda Cholula y Surf & Turf buffet, a complete culinary experience. (Please make your reservation with your tour guide during your trip before arrival to Pueblo Mágico of Tequila)
- Mexican show, including the virtual tour in the La Rojeña distillery to learn the elaboration process of tequila.
- Return to a Guadalajara, as on train and as on bus, remains as scheduled, of course, with the visit to the agave fields, also remains as scheduled on both itineraries: Sunrise and Sunset.

We kindly appreciate your comprehension and look forward to seeing you soon in Tequila.
